

Immigrant Integration and Gateways for Growth: Comparative Perspectives

November 13, 1:00-5:30 PM Malamud Room, Institute of the Americas, UC San Diego

Please join academic experts and city leaders to strategize San Diego's new grant to spur immigrant integration.

Please visit immigrantintegrationccis.eventbrite.com to register.

1:00 PM to 1:15 PM	Welcome and Opening John Skrentny, Co-Director, Center for Comparative Immigration Studies, UC San Diego Samuel Tsoi, RISE San Diego; Assistant Director, 21st Century China Center
1:15 PM to 2:50 PM	Perspectives from San Diego Karim Bouris, Director, Multi-Sector Alliance, Partners for Progress Yen Le Espiritu, Distinguished Professor, Ethnic Studies, UC San Diego Melissa Floca, Associate Director, Center for U.S.-Mexican Studies, UC San Diego Eduardo Velasquez, Research Manager, San Diego Regional Economic Development Corporation
3:00 PM to 4:00 PM	Perspectives from California Chris Benner, Dorothy E. Everett Chair in Global Information and Social Entrepreneurship, UC Santa Cruz Manuel Pastor, Director, Center for Study of Immigrant Integration, USC
4:10 PM to 5:30 PM	Perspectives from the US and Abroad John Mollenkopf, Distinguished Professor, CUNY Graduate Center Jeffrey Reitz, Robert F. Harney Professor of Ethnic, Immigration and Pluralism Studies, University of Toronto Robert McNeil, Researcher and Head of Media and Communications, Migration Observatory, University of Oxford