Report-Back: Farmworker Futures in the California Border Region

Friday, March 14, 2025 | 9:00AM - 11:50AM Pacific Time

This is an In-person Event

Location: Social Sciences Public Engagement Building
Room: PEB104

Student researchers from the Mexican Migration Field Research Program will present preliminary findings from 300 surveys and interviews conducted with farm workers in San Diego and Imperial Counties in February 2025. They will speak about patterns of labor violations and health and housing needs for this population.
