

Center for Comparative Immigration Studies, UC San Diego International Institute, UC San Diego

Borders and Migration Grant-Writing Workshop, Part I of 3

Wednesday, February 19, 2025 | 3:00PM - 5:00PM Pacific Time

This is an In-person Event

Location: Social Sciences Public Engagement Building, Room PEB520

Borders and Migration Grant-Writing Workshop, Part I of 3

Sponsor: Center for Comparative Immigration Studies & International Institute

In this series, PhD students and faculty will learn about the range of grants available and best practices for grant-writing on migration, displacement and borders; brainstorm and draft grant or fellowship proposals; and work with professional grant writers and editors to hone their proposals. They will also build community with UCSD-based scholars of migration, displacement and borders, across career stages.

Happy hour and nibbles to follow the workshop

Open to UCSD Faculty, Lecturers, Researchers, and PhD students whose research is related to migration, displacement, or borders in any location

RSVP and more info here: RSVP required

For more information, please email w2tam@ucsd.edu